内容概要

Face it, a lot of students have great LSAT scores. The best way for you to stand out in a crowd of applicants to top law schools is to write an exceptional personal statement. This book puts you in the admissions officer's seat: we give you the intimate details-test scores, GPAs, demographic information, and of course, personal statements-62 of them from 58 unique law school applicants. Then we show you where those applicants got in and where they didn't-to help you evaluate your own chances of admission at some of the most selective law schools in the nation.
