<<9 Dragons 九条巨龙>>

内容概要

For many years Detective Harry Bosch has known Fortune Liquors, a small shop in tough south L.A. A matchbook he once picked up there had a motto Happy is the man who finds refuge in himself--that guided him through some of his darkest days. Now the store's owner has been murdered and, hit hard by his death, Bosch vows to find the killer. With the help of a detective from the Asian Gang Unit, Bosch uncovers a link between the killing and a Hong Kong triad, a lethal and far-reaching crime ring. And instantly his world explodes. When the person he holds most dear is taken from him, the detective travels to Hong Kong to regain what he's lost. In a place known as Nine Dragons, the desperate Bosch must risk everything to outmatch the triad's ferocity.
