<<Futures Research and>>

内容概要

Appraises futures research as a tool for dealing with social, economic, political, and technological changes. Features new strategies in planning, forecasting, and environmental scanning. 作者简介：JAMES L. MORRISON, professor of education at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, received his B.S., M.S., and Ph.D. degrees from Florida State University. At Chapel Hill, he teaches courses in educational evaluation, planning, and research in higher education. He is immediate past chair of the Special Interest Group in Futures Research for the American Educational Research Association and currently serves as vice president (Division J--Post-secondary Education) of that association. His research interests focus on using futures research techniques in educational planning. With coauthors Renlyo and Boucher, he coedited Applying Methods and Techniques of Futures Research in 1983.
