<<Indonesia 8e印度尼西亚>>

内容概要

Stretch your hand through ancient stone latticework to touch the lucky Buddhas atop Java ' s majestic Borobudur

◦ Drink with the dead (and don ' t slip on buffalo blood !) at an elaborate and riotous Torajan funeral.

Sniff out the infamous durian or scaly salak at a local fruit market.

Step aside as a giant Komodo dragon swaggers by with the confidence only 100kg of top-of-the-food-chain lizard can exude.

Eleven authors , more than 300 days of in-country research , 73 ferry trips , 197 detailed maps , 205 bowls of nasi goreng.

Includes in-depth information on volcano trekking , surfing , diving , orang-utan watching and the best adventures.

作者简介 : Neal Bedford : Neal put indonesia on his authoring wish list , thinking it was a staggeringly exotic place of jungle and beaches , Asian culture and temples.

Little did he know that by accepting the java gig on indonesia 8 he ' s get all this and more , including bursting cities , manic streets , thick bus smoke , crazy becak (bicycle-rickshaw) drivers , even crazier bus drivers , fiery volcanoes and enough eice for , well , indonesia.

Before he knew it he was thriving in the magic of java and wondering why so few people ever visit the place. As soon as he gets the time , he ' ll be back to take another bite of the durian and explore the rest of this life-changing country.

Mark Elliott : Since his first trip in 1987 , Mark has visited virtually every corner of indonesia , with trips ranging from relaxing holidays in blissful bali to leech-infested upriver treks with Kalimantan Dayaks.

He ' s jammed on the harmonica in end-of -Ramadan festivities aboard a pelni liner , survived an appallingly storm-battered sea crossing in a Bugis fishing boat and escaped from a solo hotel shortly before it was burnt down by anti-Soeharto rioters.

Mark remains facinated by indonesia ' s smorgasbord of cultures and considers the Maluku spice islands to be among the greatest undiscovered travel gems in Asia.

Nick Ray : A Londoner of sorts , Nick comes from watford , the sort of town that makes you want to travel

◦ Soon after completing a degree in history and politics , he began roaming around indonesia , boarding bad , bad buses for more than two days at a time to travel between places like padang and jakarta.

Needless to say , he applauds the arrival of budget airlines in the country.

In this edition he covered the irregular contours of Sulawesi , a place he fell for when working in Tana Toraja on the BBC series Around the World in 80 Treasures.

He currently lives in Phnom Penh , Cambodia and has contributed to more than 20 Lonely Planet titles.

Ryan Ver Berkmoes : Ryan first visited Bali in 1993.

On his visits since he has explored almost every corner of the island-along with side trips to Nusa Lembongan , Nusa Penida and Lombok , Just when he thinks Bali holds no more surprises , he rounds a corner and is struck , for example , by the fabulous vistas from Munduk.

Afrequent visitor , he ' s at times amazed that his social calendar is even fuller on island than off it.

Most of the time he lives in Portland , Oregon , where it rains as often as it does on Bali ' s tropical peaks but rarely gets as hot.
