<<Poems for Young Chil>>

内容概要

This book is a treasure chest of words, full of delightful poetry to suit all moods. There are simple definitions to explain complicated words, and interesting facts to enrich your understanding of poetry. The oldest poems in this book are around 400 years old, but they speak of experiences anyone can understand - having a cold nose in winter or hearing the first cuckoo of the year. Poets include famous favourites such as Robert Louis Stevenson, Edward Lear, Christina Rossetti and Lewis Carroll.
