章节摘录

版权页：插图： If you hold eye contact for more than three seconds, what are you telling another person? Much depends on the person and the situation. For instance, a man and a woman communicate interest in this manner. They typically gaze at each other for about three seconds at a time, then drop their eyes down for three seconds, before letting their eyes meet again. But if one man gives another man a three-second stare, he signals, "I know you", "I am interested in you", or "You look peculiar and I am curious about you". This type of stare often produces hostile feelings. Directions : Decide whether the following statements are True or False. () 61. It can be inferred from the first paragraph that every glance has its significance. () 62. If you want to be left alone on an elevator, the best thing to do is to look into another passenger's eyes. () 63. Smiling to a stranger on an elevator is to show your kindness. () 64. One will feel uneasy if he is looked at by a stranger for too long. () 65. The passage mainly discusses the exchange of ideas through eye contact. Section B (10 marks) Interest in pursuing international careers has soared in recent years, enhanced by chronic (长久的) personnel shortages that are causing companies to search beyond their home borders for talent. Professionals seek career experience outside of their home countries for a variety of reasons. They may feel the need to recharge their batteries with a new challenge. They may want a position with more responsibility that encourages creativity and initiative. Or they may wish to expose their children to another culture, and the opportunity to learn a second language. When applying for a job, one usually has to submit a resume or curriculum vitae (CV) The two terms generally mean the same thing : a one-or two-page document describing one's educational qualifications and professional experience.
