章节摘录

I : Harry Potter has been described as the biggest and best hero since James Bond . How does that make you feel ?

D : Wow !

It makes me feel much honored . to be playing him . It ' S very exciting because Harry ' S got such an interesting life . I : What advice have your parents given you to handle fame ?

D : My mum and dad have iust told me to enjoy it . There are a lot worse things 【that could】 happen than just being recognized . I : What was the most memorable part of film-making ?

D : Im not just saying this , but one of the best parts was working with Chris[Columbus] , because he ' S a tal inspiration . He really enjoys what he does , and it ' S a real honor working with him . I : I really want to know how you manage to do everything .

I : D : I manage to fit in a lot of things ' thanks to the brilliant organization on the film . set , by my tutors who receive a lot of support from my school and also because I have great . friends who I see regularly . I can keep up to date with everything that is going on at my old school via e-mail or text message . I : Have you ever felt like you wanted to go back to your normal life , instead of being famous ?

D : D As far as I ain concerned I am a normal person . I go back to school when I am not filming , I go out with my friends , I go to the cinema-all the normal things that teenagers do . There is an assumption that I cannot leave my house without being hounded-that is not the case . I am able to do many more things than people think I can . I : What are your favorite things to do during your time off ?

D : I am absolutely obsessed with film and music . I am learning the bass guitar and : it goes everywhere with me . Also , I have a portable DVD player which travels with me with a large supply of films . These two things occupy most of my spare time . I : How will you feel if you ' re still playing Harry when you ' re 17 or 18 ?

D : Im just going to take it one book at a time . Harry advances SO much in each [school] year , he comes more out of his shell . If Im thinking about playing Harry in the fourth book or the third or whatever , I could end up bringing his character from one of them and put it in the second , and it just wouldn ' t look right .
