章节摘录

版权页：插图： It is no doubt that tiger's frequent appearance in paper-cutting shows people's admiration for its courage, strength and loveliness. In a word, the paper-cutting and the red antithetical couplets may intensify the happy atmosphere during the festivals. 2. The Lantern Festival takes place on the fifteenth day of the first month according to the Chinese lunar calendar. Every year at this time, people always make lanterns with colorful paper-cutting patterns on them, which are hung here and there in the gardens, on both sides of the main gates. The Paper lanterns are in various shapes and sizes: butterfly, bird, flower, boat, fish and so on. Lantern has become one of the elements of a joyous life. 3. Tomb-sweeping Day falls on the fifth of April of lunar Calendar. The sacrifices covered with paper-cuttings are offered to show people's missing of their deceased relatives. On lunar October the first, in the northern regions of Shanxi, colored-paper is cut into clothes, hats, shoes and quilts with various patterns to be burned in the frontgate or in the graveyard, which is another form for the living to express their deep missing of the dead. Paper-cutting in some rites In folk custom activities and celebrations, "xi" (Happiness) is an eternal theme. 1. The birth of an infant is a great happy event in a family. The elders are happy to celebrate the coming of the new life. Usually a red and big paper-cutting calabash will be pasted on the door; on the one hand, it is the publicizing the good news that a new mouth has been added to the family; on the other hand, it is regarded as a sign that casual visiting to the family has to be stopped to custom-familiar folks.
