<<英国文学作品选读>>

内容概要

Selected Readings in English Literature is to serve as a textbook for Readings in English Literature, a companion-course to History of English Literature, for third- and fourth-year students majoring in English in Chinese colleges and universities. The selected readings included herein are all taken from original writings in English literature through the centuries, with the exception of excerpts from Beowulf and Chaucer's The Canterbury Tales for which modern English translations are given in the place of the original works in Old English and Middle English. As a rule, short texts chosen are given in their entirety, while longer works are re-presented by excerpts. In accordance with the wishes of a number of teachers who will be using this book, we have included more selections here than are necessary for normal classroom use so that teachers may feel free to make their own choice.
