<<从草原到大学>>

内容概要

Vivid memories from a contemporary Tibetan childhood interwoven with custom and culture... The author begins with his first memory of childhood — a broken collarbone. Ghosts, a visit to a nomad village community, apprehending a thief, making sausages, starting school, mountain deities, first love... all combine to provide an unforgettable journey through space and time, giving the reader an extraordinary insight into Tibetan childhood.

作者简介

He was born in 1984 in his father ' s home in Chewree Village, very near the present Zhanggo (Luhuo) County Town, Garze Tibetan Autonomous Prefecture, Sichuan Province. He is currently a student in the English Program in Qinghai Nationalities Teacher ' s College, Qinghai University. He began to learn English in 2002. This is his first book.

In the summer vacation of 2004, Dr. Kevin Stuart encouraged him to write about his life. He then wrote about all the important events that he could remember in his life.
