章节摘录

Yesterday morning , a rabbit went to a field. She saw many carrots on the ground. She went home and took a large bag. She put all the carrots in the bag. It was very heavy. She didnt know what to do , so she sat on the floor. Just then a dog came. He wanted to help the rabbit with the bag , but they still couldnt move the bag. "Please wait here." The dog said and ran away. After some time , the dog came back with many friends , the panda , the giraffe , the tiger and the sheep. The rabbit was very happy. They began to move the bag. This time it was very easy and they helped the rabbit get the bag home.
