章节摘录

When they found the gentlemen had left them , they departed , and oncemore wandered weary in the wood in search of their lovers. As soon as they were gone the fairy king , who with little Puck had been listening to their quarrels , said to him , "This is your negligence , Puck;or did you do this wilfully?" "Believe me , king of shadows , " answered Puck , "it was a mistake.Did not you tell me I should know the man by his Athenian garments?However , I amnot sorry this has happened , for I think their jangling makes excellent sport." "You heard , " said Oberon , "that Demetrius and Lysander are gone to seek a convenient place to fight in.I command you to overhang the night with a thick fog , and lead these quarrelsome lovers so astray in' the dark that theyshall not be able to find each other.Counterfeit each of their voices to the other , and with bitter taunts provoke them to follow you , while they think it is their rival's tongue they hear.See you do this , till they are so weary they can go no farther;and when you find they are asleep , drop the juice of this other flowerinto Lysander's eyes , and when he awakes he will forget his new love for Helena , and return to his old passion for Hermia;and then the two fair ladiesmay each one be happy with the man she loves and they will think all that haspassed a vexatious dream.About this quickly , Puck , and I will go and see what sweet love my Titania has found." Titania was still sleeping , and Oberon , seeing a clown near her who hadlost his way in the wood and was likewise asleep , "This fellow , " said he , "shallbe my Titania's true love" , and clapping an ass's head over the clown's , it seemed to fit him as well as if it had grown upon his own shoulders.Though Oberon fixed the ass's head on very gently , it awakened him , and , rising up , unconscious of what Oberon had done to him , he went toward the bower where the fairy queen slept. "Ah I what angel is that I see? " said Titania , opening her eyes , and the juice of the little purple flower beginning to take effect."Are you as wise asyou are beautiful?" "Why , mistress , " said the foolish clown , "ifl have wit enough to find theway out of this wood , I have enough to serve my turn." "Out of the wood do not desire to go , " said the enamoured queen."I am aspirit of no common rate.I love you.Go with me , and I will give you fairies to attend upon you." She then called four of her fairies.Their names were Peas-blossom , Cobweb , Moth , and Mustard-seed. "Attend , " said the queen , "upon this sweet gentleman.Hop in his walks and gambol in his sight;feed him with grapes and apricots , and steal for him the honey-bags from the bees.Come , sit with me , " said she to the clown , "and let me play with your amiable hairy cheeks , my beautiful ass! and kiss your fair large ears , my gentle joy." "Where is Peas-blossom?"said the ass-headed clown , not much regarding the fairy queen's courtship , but very proud ofhis new attendants. "Here , sir , " said little Peas-blossom. "Scratch my head , " said the clown."Where is Cobweb?" "Good Mr.Cobweb , "said the foolish clown , "kill me the red humblebee on the top of that thistle yonder;and , good Mr.Cobweb , bring me the honey-bag.Do not fret yourself too much in the action , Mr.Cobweb , and take care the honey-bag break not;I should be sorry to have you overflown with a honey-bag.Where is Mustard-seed?"
