<<旅游英语>>

内容概要

本书的编写宗旨，是要向读者提供实用性较强的旅游英语学习内容和参考资料，因此本书在编写时紧紧围绕旅游活动中的吃、住、行、游、购、娱等环节展开。

每个环节都有生动地道的情景会话和丰富实用的常用词句。

本书有近100则情景会话和500多个常用词句。

内容不但涉及对来华旅游的国际游客的接待，而且也涉及我国公民出国旅游的诸多事项。

情景会话的场景设置也不像同类书籍那样仅仅局限于我国著名的旅游胜地，而是扩展到了欧洲、美洲、澳洲和东南亚等地著名的旅游景区。

章节摘录

插图 : L. Yes. There are tube workers at ticket windows, ready to sell you passes and ready to explain what you need to do. Some workers are also manning turnstiles leading to tube tunnels, through which you can't pass until you've got a tube ticket. T. Is it easy to tell where the train is bound ?

L. Very easy. A readerboard on the front of a London train and signs on the tube stop platform show the train's final destination. T. I have to make sure if my stop is on a certain line, right ?

L. Yes. If you are not sure, ask the worker. After you get on the train, look near the train doors and you'll see a graph showing the names of stops for the train you're on, and the stop at which you just boarded will be clearly marked. Look for the tube stop at which you want to get off and note the names of the stops around it, and count the number of times the train will stop before it reaches your destination. T. Are there any announcements from the train's PA ?

L: Yes, it will tell you where the train is about to stop seconds before it does. Sometimes you'll also hear an announcer saying, "Mind the gap". T. What is the gap ?

L. It is the space between the train and the tube platform. T. I'll be safe and sound. Have a good night. L. Good night.
