章节摘录

Stanley : What ' s the weather like in your city ?

Steven : In summer , it gets very hot . The temperature is often between 37 and 40 de-gree centigrade . When it is hot we often get rains. The winter is very dry . Stanley : The summer temperature often reaches about 20 or 25 in my city . The rainfalls mostly in the winter . Steven : What are the temperatures in winter ?

In my city it is about 15 or 20 degrees . Stanley : In winter , temperature often falls to zero ; at night , temperature can be below that . The streets are often icing in the morning . ' With such high temperatures , you must get some thunderstorms . Steven : Yeah . we do . In the middle of summer . there can be storms every day . I heard your city has a h) t of tog , is that true ?

Stanlev : We do have a few fog days in winter . But I would not say we have a lot of fogs . The sky is usually clear in your city , isn ' t it ?

Steven : Yes . it is . Like I said we have thunderstorms but each one usually last a feW hours , then the sk) ' is c]ear again。

Stanley : Have you ever had snow in your city ?

Steven : My grandmother said there was snow once when she was a child but my par-ents and I never see it outside of my city . Stanley : The river in my city sometime freezes during winter . So , people usually go ice-skating on it . In summer people go boating on the river , but few people go swimming because it is not very clean。

Steven : As YOU know , my city is on the coast . The water is also not SO clean , but peo-pie still go swimming all year around . I prefer to sun bath on the beach when the weather is hot .
