内容概要

YOU don't know about me, without you have read a book by the name of The Adventures of Tom Sawyer, but that ain't no matter. That book was made by Mr. Mark Twain, and he told the truth, mainly. There was things which he stretched, but mainly he told the truth. That is nothing. I never seen anybody but lied, one time or another, without it was Aunt Pollv or the widow, or maybe Marv Aunt Polly-- Tom's Aunt Polly; she is-and Mary; and the Widow Douglas, is all told about in that book-which is mostly a true book; .with some stretchers, as I said before. Now the way that the book winds up, is this: Tom and me found the money that the robbers hid in the cave, and it made us rich. We got six thousand dollars apiece-all gold. It was an awful sight of money when it was piled up. Well, Judge Thatcher, he took it and put it out at interest, and it fetched us a dollar a day apiece, all the year round--more than a body could tell what to do with.

章节摘录

插图: As soon as Tom was back we cut along the path. aroundthe garden fence. and by and by fetched up on the steep topof the hill the other side of the house. Tom said he slippedJim's hat off of his head and hung it on a limb right over him.and Jim stirred a little. but he didn't wake. Afterwards Jimsaid the witches betwitched him and put him in a trance, androde him all over the State. and then set him under the treesagain and hung his hat on a limb to show who done it. Andnext time Jim told it he said they rode him down to NewOrleans; and, after that. every time he told it he spread itmore and more. till by and by he said they rode him all overthe world. and tired him most to death, and his back was allover saddle-boils. Jim was monstrous proud about it. and hegot so he wouldn't hardly notice the other niggers. Niggerswould come miles to hear Jim tell about it, and he was morelooked up to than any nigger in that country. Strange niggerswould stand with their mouths open and look him all over,same as if he was a wonder. Niggers is always talking aboutwitches in the dark by the kitchen fire. but whenever onewas talking and letting on to know all about such things,Jim would happen in and say. Hm!

What you know boutwitches?

And that nigger was corked up and had to take aback seat. Jim always kept that five-center piece round hisneck with a string, and said it was a charm the devil give tohim with his own hands and told him he could cure anybodywith it and fetch witches whenever he wanted to.
