章节摘录

插图：The Haggler's Den was an old junk shop! Ellie pressed her nose against the window and peered in. In two days' time it would be her mother's birthday. Her mother loved old things, so maybe Ellie could find a present for her in the shop. She pushed open the door and entered. The shop smelled stale and dusty, and statues with angry gargoyle faces glared straight at her. A face appeared in the doorway at the back of the shop. Ellie saw two small, pinhole eyes and a long nose. Then she saw a thin, mean mouth. The face came closer, and Ellie saw that the woman was large and had fingers the size of thick sausages. As she neared, Ellie glanced around the shop nervously. Every bit of space was crammed with old things.
