章节摘录

I am very delighted to learn that you have been elected Chairman of the Students Union in your college. It is a wonderful and exciting moment for you. I have good reasons to feel proud of you. It is challenging to be the chairman of the Students Union, but you are fully qualified for the role you are going to play. Through 3 years of working together with you in high school, I have witnessed your special ability in leadership and socializing. I have strong faith in your capability of shouldering the chairman's duty in this organization. Also, I believe this post has offered you a new opportunity to fully develop yourself and make you well prepared for future career. It is no doubt that you may encounter hardships during the oncoming days, yet no matter how tough it is, never lose your heart or let yourself down. And remember I am always there to support you as your close friend. Again, heartfelt congratulations on your achievement. Wish you enjoy your trying yet rewarding new part in college.
