章节摘录

The camel made up her mind to become a ballet dancer. "To make every movement beautiful," said the camel, "is my one and only desire." Again and again she practiced her dancing. She repeated the five basic positions a hundred times each day. She worked for months under the hot desert sun. Her feet bled, and her body ached, but not once did she think of stopping. At last the camel said, "Now I am a dancer." She invited a group of her camel friends over to her home and danced before them. When her dance was over, she made a deep bow. But, there was no applause. "I must tell you frankly," said a member of the audience, "your dancing is terrible. You are, like the rest of us, simply a camel. You are not, and never will be, a ballet dancer !

" The audience left, laughing all the way out. "How very wrong they are!" said the camel. "I have worked hard. There can be no doubt that I am an excellent dancer. I will dance and dance only for myself." That is what she did, and it gave her many years of pleasure. ....
